Encore Introduces Sunny Kids: The Latest Addition to the Sunny Family

Serving as the ultimate companion for little dreamers and big imaginations, Sunny Kids is a delightful blend of fun and functionality

Committed to providing comfortable and aesthetically pleasing seating options for all ages, Encore has launched the Sunny Kids guest chair. This latest addition to the recently-introduced Sunny collection—which includes full-sized guest chairs, lounge seating and occasional tables—cleverly scales down its adult counterpart for younger generations while maintaining the same charming design and durable features.

With subtle nods to California's surf culture and the "live in the moment" ethos, Sunny incorporates thoughtful elements that embody simplicity, nature, and a spirit of collaboration and community. Sunny Kids is an extension of that, with a design that was able to emulate the original with minimal modifications, making it a win-win to serve the youngest demographic within communities.

"Our team is driven by a human-centric vision," says Yorgo Lykouria, Founder and Creative Principal of Rainlight Studio. "Mirroring the joyful exploration that we hope to inspire, Sunny Kids embraces the unique child-like wonder of its intended audience."

Though smaller in size, it maintains the same level of detail and craftsmanship inherent in the full collection, including a welcoming curved shape, a warm wood frame and plush, tailor-stitched cushions. Signature die-cast aluminum connectors are available in a spectrum of standard and premium finishes, including neutrals, earth tones and fun vibrant hues, allowing it to stand confidently on its own or live side-by-side with adult models.

Ideal for a wide range of children's and family-oriented environments, including bookstores, libraries, retail outlets, pediatric and other healthcare facilities, Sunny Kids transforms any area into a haven for imagination and endless adventures, inspiring young minds to explore, dream and create.
